CLOSER LOOK: Blinkers come off G2 turf winner who was G3 Pro-Ride runnerup at 12 furlongs vs. Tap It Light (later 6th in grassy San Juan Capistrano); latest turf form cycle left something to be desired and runner needs to step up to vanquish Richard's Kid; of course, there's still potential upside in corner at age 4 and he can race closer to pace if need be; consider in exotics.

 The rank outsider graduated soon after Dec. '08 claim but is now looking to get back on track after heading to sidelines for 15 months; his single triumph pales in comparison to these and individual still seeks initial top 3 finish since returning from the lengthy absence; can't tout him in this difficult spot.

$51 '09 Cougar upsetter over Richard's Kid searches for initial win since; hard-hitting Cal.-bred hasn't exactly been dull during 6-year-old campaign, nearly earning G2 victory in April, and joins today's favorite as only runners owning wins on the Del Mar polytrack; believe a small slice is classy horse's ceiling at this time.

English transplant is mare tackling the boys 2nd off the bench; chestnut lacks winning profile as well as a synthetic score and benefitted from setting soft fractions as G3 Beverly Hills runnerup to Turning Top (capturing 4th straight race); presence of speedy Temple City (not to mention Richard's Kid) complicates matters today; others entice more.

 Baffert-trainee again attempts to use this marathon as springboard to success in G1 Pacific Classic while becoming a millionaire in the process; the topweight returned from Dubai to finish respectable 3rd in G1 behind $2 million earner Awesome Gem and 2-5 favored Rail Trip; likelihood of at least honest splits also aids cause; capable at short price.

 Probable pacesetter hopes the mare Princess Taylor isn't gunned for the lead and may get his wish; 5-year-old put forth 100 Beyer in speedy G2 grass near miss and seeks another strong performance over strip he finished 4th on vs. Informed (later 8th and 9th while contesting G1 events next pair); not out of this if Talamo can bid time on the front end.
